Thomas Hartmann: Everything Meets on view at Rosenbaum Contemporary in Boca

BOCA RATON, Fla.— Thomas Hartmann: Everything Meets will be on view from February 1 through March 5 at the Rosenbaum Contemporary gallery (150 Yamato Road) in Boca Raton, Fla. The exhibition will feature new landscape, people, and book paintings by German artist Thomas Hartmann.

In his paintings, Hartmann strives to reconcile contradictions: from close-up perspectives to bird's-eye views, individuals versus the whole, preservation versus obsolescence, and beauty versus melancholy, constantly seeking to find the one perfect point where everything meets.

His work has been the subject of numerous solo exhibitions at prestigious institutions including the Museum Ratingen, the Kunsthalle Erfurt, the Kunsthalle Rostock, the Museum of Modern Art of Bremen, the Görlitz Museum of Cultural History, the Heidelberger Art Association, the Neubrandenburg Art Collection, the Oldenburger Kunstverein and the Museum of Contemporary Art of Siegen in Germany.

The works can be viewed during regular gallery hours, Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., as well as on the gallery's website www.rosenbaumcontemporary.com.

Rosenbaum Contemporary, founded in 1979, is based in Boca Raton, Florida. The gallery caters to international collectors interested in investment-quality works by postwar, modern and contemporary masters and presents nationally recognized museum-level exhibitions throughout the year. The gallery also offers a wide range of free services to collectors worldwide including acquisition advice, art consulting, sourcing of artists, art collection building and management and resale of select works of art.
