-FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE-

Ivan Loboguerrero: Hidden In Nature* now on view at Rosenbaum Contemporary

BOCA RATON, Fla.— Ivan Loboguerrero: Hidden In Nature is now on view through July 1 at Rosenbaum Contemporary at 150 Yamato Road, Boca Raton, Fla. The exhibition contains works from the Colombian artist's popular "hidden in nature" series which features plant-life environments that, upon much closer examination, reveal hidden human figures within. By hiding figures, the artist invites viewers to step away, spend time with his work and ultimately experience spirituality.

Loboguerrero won first place in painting in the V Encuentro Internacional de Artistas Plásticos, Alberto Urdaneta in Bogotá, Colombia. His work has been exhibited widely in Europe, North America and South America including in the Museo de Arte Hispano in Miami and the VI Salón Nacional de Artistas in Bogotá, Colombia. His auction record includes Christie's, New York, among others. His work has also been highly sought after by collectors since he was added to the Rosenbaum Contemporary's artist roster in 2021.

The Ivan Loboguerrero: Hidden In Nature exhibition can be viewed during regular gallery hours, Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Rosenbaum Contemporary, founded in 1979, is based in Boca Raton, Fla., with an additional gallery in Palm Beach. The gallery caters to international collectors interested in investment-quality works by postwar, modern and contemporary masters and presents nationally recognized museum-level exhibitions throughout the year. The gallery also offers a wide range of free services to collectors worldwide including acquisition advice, art consulting, sourcing of artists, art collection building and management and resale of select works of art.
