Rosenbaum Contemporary Presenting New Oil Paintings by Thomas Hartmann

BOCA RATON, Fla.—Rosenbaum Contemporary is presenting new oil paintings by German Contemporary artist Thomas Hartmann in its Boca Raton gallery (150 Yamato Road, Boca Raton, Fla.) March 27 through April 25. The gallery is open Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Hartmann, born in Zetel, Germany, has received several awards including the Overbeck Prize for Fine Arts; the Art Prize for Artists of Düsseldorf, Germany; and the Willi Oltmanns Prize for Painting, Delmenhorst. His work has been shown throughout Europe and the United States in numerous venues including the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum in New York, the Toledo Museum of Art in Ohio and the National Library in Warsaw, among others.

Rosenbaum Contemporary, founded in 1979, caters to international collectors interested in investment-quality work by Postwar, Modern and Contemporary masters and presents nationally recognized museum-level exhibitions throughout the year. The gallery also offers a wide range of free services to collectors worldwide including acquisition advice, art consulting, sourcing of artists, art collection building and management and resale of select works of art.
