

URBAN POP

HIJACK

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Hijack is a contemporary artist with roots in street art. He now specializes in realism and surreal imagery, crafting distinctive woodcuts and expansive hand-painted sculptures. His unique signature style challenges the physical limitations of the frame, while his playful subject matter captivates viewers.

Immersed in an artistic upbringing alongside his father, the renowned artist Mr. Brainwash, Hijack honed his skills in various mediums including spray painting, stenciling, acrylics, graphic design, and woodworking. As he evolved, his focus transitioned to the intricate art of oil painting.

He tirelessly dedicates himself to refining his craft through a myriad of projects, exhibitions, and cutting-edge concepts.